MEETING MINUTES OF A REGULAR MEETING
OF THE BOARD OF ONEIDA COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

The meeting was opened by Commissioner Tubbs

Don Buehler met with the Commissioners to finalize the contract to open a gravel pit in Daniels area on 2 acres of his land and to purchase the gravel for County roads.

Commissioner Tubbs made the motion to amend the agenda to allow time for Rhonda Neal to address topics from the Chamber of Commerce.
Commissioner Daniels seconded and the motion carried.

Assessor: announcement was made that Corin Meyer was going to retire.

Treasurer: Reminded the BOCC of the three tax deed properties in the Counties possession and updated them with Lisa Martin's tax situation.

Road and Bridge: Speed limit signs have been posted on the New Canyon road.
Commissioners requested a traffic study.

Probation: Jill reported that the testing fees will increase $5.00 each for the lab test and the stick test beginning July 1st, 2013.

Sheriff: Monthly medical expenses are increasing for inmates. The refrigerator unit for the Coroner has not arrived yet.

Attorney: Junkyard and nuisance ordinances have been repealed and are no longer in force. The recent Telford case for property tax exemptions was found in favor of the County.

Lisa Martin thanked the Commissioners for the extention on her 2009 taxes and requested the same consideration for the delinquent 2010 taxes.

Commissioner Tubbs made the motion to allow Mrs. Martin to pay her delinquent 2010 taxes at the rate of $100.00 dollars per month for the next Year.
Commissioner Daniels seconded and the motion carried.

The BOCC agreed that the County should move forward in selling the three tax deed properties. Dustin will write up the legal information for the paper and an auction will be held in conjunction with a regular meeting of the BOCC on July 22nd.

Gordon Smith voiced concern about neighbors moving in old cars on property by his home near Crowther's reservoir. He stated that "with the cars come a lot of small animals that create a nuisance and destruction". The Commissioners indicated that no County laws existed that could help with this situation. The only options would be to check with possible State laws or to pursue a civil action.

Rhonda Neal met with the BOCC to make a second request for $500.00 dollars to help pay for entertainment for the July 4th, celebration. The Commissioners felt that this was not possible due to the decrease in revenue and the possible high cost of the pending litigation associated with the triple homicide earlier in the year. Also requested was a letter of support to utilize the money in the City Economic Development account to support the continued efforts to revitalize the City. Commissioner Tubbs indicated that a reorganization of this Committee should be the first action at which point a long term plan could be drawn up and the money could then be spent with a purpose. The city and county will need to meet and work towards this reorganization.

Landfill fees were discussed in regards to materials that could be used as cover material rather than needing to be covered up.

Jeff Hamas from the Forest Service talked about

- 1- weed spraying on public lands and
- 2- The upcoming fire season and how it could impact our county.

It was highly suggested that the county register their equipment for the purpose of seeking reimbursement if it is used to fight local fires on public lands.

Lennart Nivegard spoke to the Board about County representation on the Juvenile Justice Council. It was noted that the County could recommend name of persons to serve on this board.

Commissioner Tubbs made the motion to recommend Jill Davis to serve on the Juvenile Justice Council.

Commissioner Daniels seconded and the motion carried.
